Construction Reform and Community Benefits Ordinance

Blaine Griffin: City of Cleveland Council President

Tyson Mitchell: City of Cleveland, Director of Mayor's Office of Equal Opportunity

Presentation for Cogence Alliance

Blaine A. Griffin, President, Cleveland City Council and Councilman for Ward 6

The Imperative

- ❖ WHEREAS, this Council recognizes the gap between supply and demand in the construction and development industry
- ❖ WHEREAS, this Council values the principles of diversity, equity and inclusion
- ❖ WHEREAS, to further these principles, this Council is working with the Administration to improve compliance to correct market failures
- ❖ WHEREAS, the City of Cleveland OEO's 2021 Annual Report reported that 6.5% of the City's prime contracts were awarded to MBEs; 21% were awarded to FBEs; and 45% were awarded to CSBs
- ❖ WHEREAS, the City of Cleveland OEO analyzed non-compliance of Economic Development projects from 2019-2023 and found lost wealth creation opportunities for MBE and FBE contractors; full-time employment opportunities lost for Cleveland residents; and millions in lost wages and lost payroll taxes
- ❖ WHEREAS, from 2014 to 2018, of $1.1 Billion in prime contract spending by Cuyahoga County, only 51.5 Million, or 4.62% was awarded to Minority and/or Women-owned Business Enterprises (MWBE) firms as prime contractors
